

IF YOU PLAN TO SHARE YOUR LIFE WITH A COMPANION ANIMAL, build the homeque it needs

Check these points to make responsible purchasing

BREEDING ENVIRONMENT

You should always buy a companion animal from an authorised or registered breeder or pet shop that allows you to visit their premises, and that the premises meet animal welfare criteria.

The direct sale of animals via Internet is prohibited. In advertisements, check that they include the breeder's or pet shop's registration number and be suspicious of excessively low prices.

CONDITIONS OF THE ANIMAL

Before you buy it, visit it to make sure that it is in good health, shows no signs of fear of the breeder or strangers and that the puppies/kittens are with their mother.

Do not hesitate to consult your trusted veterinarian to reliably detect any irregularities in the animal's health.

DOCUMENTATION IN ORDER

Any irregularity in documentation could be an indication of the illegality or lack of professionalism and ethics of the business behind it.

Inform yourself correctly to avoid making an illegal purchase, as illegal animal trafficking is prosecuted by law due to the great harm it does, both to society and to the animals themselves.
